

Serving Global Clients with Local Expertise

At Säkra, we understand the importance of having a trusted local partner who can deliver both expertise and reliability in cross-border insurance matters. That's why we've established our International Team within the Large & Complex unit – a dedicated group supporting global broker partners and international clients in the Swedish market.

With 40 senior specialists across multiple lines of business, we offer deep knowledge, swift execution, and a coordinated client experience – from onboarding to claims handling.
